The 2012/2013 dates for the External Qi Healing Program in Santa Fe, NM

Check with us for exact dates. Class begins in April 2012 and completes in July 2013

Students will be expected to practice and read textbooks between class meetings

“Qi” is vital energy or life force.

Qi Gong can prevent and cure disease, protect and strengthen health, and promote longevity.

The advanced Taoist practitioner, through internal alchemy practice, can strengthen internal energy and intuitive power, and extend that internal chi to others for healing.
